OBJECT OF MOTHERS' MEETINGS.

set Forth in a Paper Read by Mrs Amelia Smith.

Mrs. D. B. Hand had charge of very interesting mothers meeting at the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union yesterday afternoon. After devotional exercises, Mrs. Amelia Smith read an aricle entitled "Object of Mothers' Meetings." It is to study the methods of child training which will develop the strongest character and give to the child the best teaching possible to fit it for the responsibilities of life, said Mrs. Smith. Virtue and innocence are not interchangeable terms. Innocence is the early condition of the mind of the child before it has mingled with the world, while virtue is the knowledge of good and evil crystalized into the will to do right. The mother should not allow the child to encounter untaught, the evil of the world. Not protect after they have heard one side, but forearm and forewarn, opening their eyes to the dangers of life's pathway. With mother's love and mother's prayers we can point out the narrow way that leads to the white heights of purity.

Mothers' meetings are to encourage mothers to help each other in the right training of children, to enthuse energy in the practical lines of culture, and to make careful preparations for this great and noble profession of making and child training and home character building.

A leastet was also read on "The Sacredness and Responsibility of Motherhood" by the Pennsylvania superintendent of mothers' meetings, Mrs. E. snowed that the child is just what the parents make it, and provoked quite a discussion of the practical suggestions for the right training of the child from babyhood. This hould be done chiefly by love.

Mrs. Pease told of the grand re-union of the Loyal Temperance Legions of Lackawanna county, to be held July 15 at Laurel Hill park. There is to be games, races, refreshments and a good speaker and it was hoped that a large number especially of our Women's Christian Temperance union would at-

Made a Mistake. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: With your kind permission I will use space enough in your valuable paper to contradict an article which appeared last Sunday's issue of the Elmira Tele gram. The article referred to a riotous time said to have taken place on the last Taylor car. For the information of those who don't know anything about the said riotous time I would like to state that I have conducted the last Taylor car for the past eight months and no such a scan-dalous affair has taken place on my car. If the West Side correspondent of the Telegram hasn't got a watch he had bet-ter inquire the time and avert future mistakes in that line. Perhaps, though, he is looking for a rep-utation as a modern Ananias. If such is the case he is making a very good begin ning. There is still another excuse for his making such an error. Perhaps he had imbibed too freely of Rendham's favorite beverage and did not know whether he was on a street car or a wheel-barrow At any rate he has made a sad mistake and if he is a gentleman he will correct it. Yours respectfully, S. L. Bunnell.
